

PCIT INTERNATIONAL AWARDS

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE 2019 CONVENTION

I. CLINICAL SERVICE & ADVOCACY AWARD

The PCIT-International Clinical Service and Advocacy Award recognizes individuals' dedicated service to the PCIT clinical community. To qualify, individuals must currently be active in PCIT International (i.e., certified therapists or trainers) and must be engaged in PCIT clinical services as a therapist, supervisor or trainer.

In choosing recipients for the award, the selection committee will consider the ways in which an individual has supported or provided outstanding PCIT clinical service. Nominees should demonstrate strong advocacy for PCIT in their agencies or the greater community.

II. LABELED PRAISE AWARD

The PCIT-International Labeled Praise Award recognizes individuals' outstanding service to PCIT International. Nominees must currently be active in the organization, including holding leadership positions on task forces or committees and should demonstrate significant contributions to PCIT-International.

In choosing recipients for the award, the selection committee will consider the level of service to the development, promotion, and leadership of PCIT International.

III. RESEARCH & INNOVATION AWARD

The PCIT-International Research and Innovation Award recognizes individuals' contribution to advances in the knowledge and reach of PCIT. This includes those who have contributed high quality research on PCIT and/or advanced high fidelity applications of PCIT in a new area or with a population for whom it was previously unavailable.

In choosing recipients for the award, the selection committee will consider the quality and impact of nominees' contributions to research, including advancements in clinical applications of PCIT, expanding the reach of PCIT, and/or extending the evidence base for PCIT.

IV. STEPHEN BOGGS GRADUATE STUDENT PCIT RESEARCH AWARD

In honor of Dr. Stephen Boggs and his legacy of commitment to research excellence and graduate training, the Graduate Student PCIT Research Award recognizes a current doctoral student for research advancing the knowledge of PCIT. Eligible candidates are doctoral students in clinical psychology or a related field who will have not yet received their doctorate by the 2019 PCIT Convention. Both nominations from mentors and self-nominations are accepted.

INFORMATION ABOUT AWARDS AND HOW TO NOMINATE

Awards are given biennially during the PCIT International Convention. Each award winner will receive an inscribed plaque and will have their accomplishments highlighted on the PCIT-International blog. The Stephen Boggs Graduate Student Research Award recipient will receive $500 to continue their scholarly work in PCIT.

Nominations are solicited from all sectors of the PCIT community. Self-nominations are NOT permitted for the Clinical Service & Advocacy Award, Labeled Praise, or Research & Innovation Award, but both nominations from mentors and self-nominations are accepted for the Graduate Student PCIT Research Award. To nominate an individual, please complete the nomination form (below) and send to Dr. Melanie Nelson (nelsonm@php.ufl.edu) on or before July 1, 2019.

After reviewing the nominations, a selection of nominees will be invited to submit their CV and a personal statement describing their service to PCIT International. Award recipients will be selected by a committee composed of at least one member of the Board of Directors of PCIT International, members of PCIT-International task forces, and community partners. Members of the selection committee are not eligible for nomination for awards.
