

Initial PCIT Training in Beautiful, Historic Santa Fe, New Mexico, July 1-5, 2019

Intended for licensed mental health professionals with a master's or doctoral degree. (e.g., social work, counseling, psychology).
Training will include:

- ◆ Pre-training consultation to assess clinician/agency readiness.
- ◆ 40-hour in-person workshop in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
- ◆ Full year of biweekly consultation.
- ◆ Review of video-taped therapy sessions.
- ◆ PCIT protocol manuals and training materials.

LOCATION: Voted among the top 15 cities in the US (Travel + Leisure, 2018), Santa Fe is a destination for enthusiasts of food, art, and natural beauty. Come for the training, stay to explore the beautiful culture and world-class restaurants, galleries, museums, and historic monuments (www.santafe.org).

CERTIFIED MASTER TRAINER: Dr. Larissa Niec, Director of the Center for Children, Families, and Communities at CMU, has trained PCIT therapists for over twenty years in the US, Australia, and Europe.

This workshop and ongoing consultation meet requirements for PCIT-International Certification.

Maximum of 9 trainees to provide individualized training.

Psychology continuing education pending.

FOR DETAILS & TO REGISTER

CONTACT

LARISSA NIEC, PHD
NIEC1L@CMICH.EDU