PCIT Within-Agency Trainer Workshop

Participants will learn skills needed to become a Within-Agency PCIT Trainer. Within-Agency Trainers (WATers) are individuals who have received such PCIT training as to be qualified to teach and supervise therapists at their own program or agency, with a scope of traineeship that is limited to their physical location or site.

Target Audience: This training is aimed at Masters- or doctoral-level mental health practitioners who are currently licensed in their state, certified by PCIT International, and who have graduated at least 2 cases at the time training begins and at least 4 cases to finish the process. Participants must be willing to commit to 8+ hours of didactics, year-long video conferencing consultation, video-review process, and assisting one therapist to graduate one PCIT case.

Content Level: Advanced

Time:

Location:

Dates:

Cost: _____, which includes 8+ hours of didactics plus the year of monthly case consultation and required session reviews.

By the End of WAT training you will be able to...

1. State the methods by which therapist competencies in coaching will be evaluated.
2. Demonstrate the ability to calculate the percent reliability between trainer and trainee DPICS coding.
3. Effectively score an integrity checklist to ensure fidelity to the PCIT protocol.
4. List two different schedules for structuring a therapist training.
5. Accurately state the PCIT International criteria to become both a Certified Therapist and a Within Agency Trainer.
6. Apply at least two cultural considerations for increasing engagement with diverse families.

Course Description

- Within-Agency Trainers offer a unique training experience to their trainees by use of the “co-therapy” model, which allows trainees to learn PCIT during actual sessions with the Within-Agency Trainer.
  - This program will emphasize the ability of the Within-Agency Trainer to structure training for their therapists-in-training, including timing of didactics and co-therapy.
    - Participants will practice techniques for developing coaching skills in their trainees through both didactics and in-session coaching.
    - Fidelity to the PCIT protocol will be emphasized throughout the training, including assessment of their trainees' adherence to fidelity using the integrity checklists within the protocol.
    - Participants will practice assessing trainee competencies, including calculating their trainees' DPICS coding reliability.
    - Trainee assessment will also focus on tracking competencies on a training tracker, including CDI competency, PDI competency, case graduation, and attendance in didactics and consultation.

Limitations/Risks

- The risks associated with this training are low. Most common risks include stress that may occur when attempting to train a trainee to achieve skill competency, which will be guarded against by establishing rapport with trainees and moving at a pace that matches their progress in learning.
- Another common risk is managing the stress that the Within-Agency trainers may experience when their trainee implements coaching of discipline in session with a highly disruptive child. This will be ameliorated through ongoing case consultation between the WATer trainee and their trainer.
- Limitations of the content include limits to the populations that are served through this treatment modality.

Cancellation / Refund Policy

Certificates of Continuing Education will be sent via email after course completion.

Should a participant wish to file a grievance regarding this continuing education experience, please email pcit.ce@gmail.com or mail to: PCIT International PO Box 1591, High Springs, FL 32655

When a participant, either orally or in written format, files a grievance and expects action on the complaint, the following actions will be taken:

1. If the grievance concerns a speaker, the content presented by the speaker, or the style of presentation, the individual filing the grievance will be asked to put his/her comments in written format. The Continuing Education Task Force Chair will then pass the comments to the speaker, assuring the confidentiality of the grieved individual.
2. If the grievance concerns a workshop offering, its content, level of presentation, or the setting in which the workshop was offered, the Continuing Education Task Force Chair will mediate and will be the final arbitrator. If the participant requests action, the convention chair will:
   a. Attempt to move the participant to another workshop or
   b. Provide a credit for a subsequent year’s workshop or
   c. Provide a partial or full refund of the workshop fee
3. If the grievance concerns the PCIT International Continuing Education Task Force program, in specific regard, the PCIT International President or Advisory Board Chair will attempt to arbitrate.
4. Please contact via email at pcit.ce@gmail.com or mailing address: PCIT International PO Box 1591, High Springs, FL 32655, to submit a complaint or if you have additional questions.
